

THE MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

JAMES A. COX
Editor-in-Chief
mwbookrevw@aol.com
<http://www.midwestbookreview.com>

278 Orchard Drive
Oregon, WI 53575
(608) 835-7937
mbr@execpc.com

SMALL PRESS BOOKWATCH: April 2005

James A. Cox, Editor-in-Chief

Midwest Book Review

278 Orchard Drive, Oregon, WI 53575

The Children's Shelf

Girls Can!

Rick Kupchella, et al.

Tristan Publishing, Inc.

2300 Louisiana Avenue North, Suite B, Golden Valley, MN 55427

0972650411 $16.95 1-866-545-1383 www.tristanpublishing.com

In Girls Can!: Make It Happen, Rick Kupchella (with contributions by U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, Olympic Gold Medalist Jackie Joyner-Kersey, and American astronaut Sally Ride), has written a children's picturebook (featuring brilliant full-color artwork by Marilyn Brown) that will inspire young girls ages four to eight in what their future possibilities might be. Enthusiastically reinforcing positive messages - find your passion! You decide what you will be! - Girls Can! draws upon the success stories of great women as inspiration for the heights any young girl can one day achieve. A strongly positive story featuring a message that can never be imparted to early or too strongly.